Hallawell's 1949 DAFFODILS

To avoid a lot of confusion for those who are not familiar with botanical names, we list our Narcissi under the heading of DAFFODILS. They include long, medium, and short trumpet types, as well as the charming Poeticus or Poet's Narcissi, and are listed in alphabetical order for convenience. Varieties offered include the better ones of each class which are available at moderate prices.

CULTURE—In preparing the soil for daffodils mix in 3 or 4 lbs. of bone meal to 100 sq. ft. Set the bulbs 6 inches apart each way and 5 to 7 inches deep. Many California gardeners leave them in the ground year after year and plant on top of them, but do not remove the foliage. It must be left to die down naturally.

ACTAEA—One of the lovely Poet's Narcissi with pure white petals and an attractive reddish eye or cup in the center. Actaea is always a favorite at our annual daffodil show in April.
 3 for 65c; 12 for $2.00; 100 for $15.00

BEERSHEBA—One of the choicest of the white trumpet class. The flowers are large, perianth is pure white, and the trumpet is ivory. We have had stems 20 inches long.

IMPORTANT ADVICE TO HOME GARDENERS

The success of your garden depends largely upon your own good efforts, but highly important also is the quality of the seeds and bulbs you plant.

One of the first things for a new gardener to learn is that there are many grades of bulbs and seeds offered on the market.

Large healthy bulbs will produce strong healthy plants, and more and better quality flowers. Cheap low grade bulbs and seeds produce disappointing results and prove more expensive in the long run.

The bulbs and seeds you buy are the least expensive part of your garden operations and the better quality of your original purchase will justify the further expenditure for fertilizer, water, and your own time.

Forty-one years in San Francisco is our best reference as a high quality seed and bulb establishment and we solicit your patronage on the basis of high quality and good service.

HERA—One of the daintiest. The broad overlapping petals of the perianth are cream-white; the cup is deeply frilled with a dainty edging of light primrose.
3 for 65c; 12 for $2.00; 100 for $15.00

JOHN EVELYN—Exquisitely lovely. The pure white perianth is four to five inches across, framing the glistening lemon-yellow crown which is beautifully frilled and shirred. It is excellent for a pot variety and may be grown in Hallawell's bulb fibre. Large bulbs.

KING ALFRED—Huge flowers and stems to 20 inches long, a grand display in your garden. Every Hallawell bulb is guaranteed to bloom one or more flowers. Be sure to plant Hallawell King Alfreds for more blooms you'll be proud to have in your garden. Three sizes of bulbs as follows:

Extra Size—Should produce 2 to 4 flowers per bulb.

Grow Bulbs In Pots With HALLAWELL'S BULB FIBRE

Anyone can grow bulbs in pots with excellent results. We grow them every year for demonstration purposes, especially Narcissi, Hyacinths, Crocus, Freesias, Sparaxis, Muscari, etc. Of the larger bulbs such as Narcissi, plant 4 or 5 in a 6- or 7-inch pot. Of the smaller bulbs put many in a pot, plant them close together and about 1 inch deep. Moisten the bulb fibre before planting and keep it moist after.

In our San Francisco climate, best results are obtained by setting the pot or bowl of bulbs out in the garden where it will be in bright daylight and cool. Leave it there until the first buds appear ready to open, then take it into the house. In most severe climates it may be too cold to leave them in the garden but we think it is important to keep them cold if they are stored indoors.

Bulb fibre may also be used for planting in bowls without drainage and it contains all the necessary plant food.

1½ pounds of Bulb Fibre will fill a 7-inch pot. You may use it again by adding fertilizer.

NOTES ON GLADIOLUS CULTURE

Gladiolus are easy to grow. They give best results in rich soil, a sunny location and a good deep irrigation once every week or 10 days. Dig in some fertilizer at time of planting and another application on the surface when they are a foot high.

Important—To prevent thrips on gladiolus begin spraying when the plants are 6 inches high and again every 10 days until the flower buds begin to show color. We suggest DURA DUST No. 50 which is 50% wettable DDT. In addition to thrip prevention Dura Dust is also very effective in the control of cutworms, earwigs, sow bugs, ants, etc., and for codling moth on apples and pears.

1 lb. pkg. $1.00 ($1.25 packed and postpaid) When you cut gladiolus leave some of the foliage to store food for the next year.
